ROBBERY SUSPECTS ARRESTED BY DEKALB SHERIFF'S FUGITIVE UNIT

DECATUR, GA – (June 29, 2026) – The DeKalb County Sheriff's Office Fugitive Unit arrested three robbery suspects today who were wanted in connection with a May 28, 2026, armed robbery in the 2000 block of Flat Shoals Road in Atlanta.

George Simmons, 21, and co-defendant Kevin Safford, 22, were apprehended at a residence in Ellenwood. The third co-defendant, Christian Terry, 23, was taken into custody in the 2500 block of Candler Road in Decatur.

All three are charged with Armed Robbery, a felony, in connection with the theft of a PlayStation 5 gaming system at gunpoint.

"Today's arrests demonstrate the dedication and professionalism of our Fugitive Unit," said DeKalb County Sheriff Melody M. Maddox. "The DeKalb County Sheriff's Office remains committed to locating and apprehending individuals wanted for violent crimes to help keep our community safe."

The three men were transported to the DeKalb County Jail without incident and are currently being held without bond.
