DEKALB COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE INVESTIGATION LEADS TO ARREST OF CHILD MOLESTATION SUSPECT IN ALABAMA

DECATUR, GA - (July 24, 2026) – On Thursday, July 23, a DeKalb County fugitive was arrested in Toney, Alabama, after an investigation by the DeKalb County Sheriff's Office (DKSO) Criminal Process Fugitive Unit, with assistance from the U.S. Marshals Service.

Robert L. Junior was located and taken into custody without incident. According to the arrest warrant, he is charged with child molestation.

"Our deputies work tirelessly to track down individuals who attempt to avoid prosecution," said Sheriff Melody M. Maddox. "This arrest is another example of the persistence of our Criminal Process Fugitive Unit and the value of our partnership with the U.S. Marshals Service. No matter where a fugitive goes, we will continue working with our law enforcement partners to bring them back to DeKalb County to face the charges against them."

Junior was transported to the Madison County Jail in Huntsville, Alabama, where he is awaiting extradition to DeKalb County.
